Grub Burger Bar Partners with Dine Out for the Cure, a Program Benefiting Susan G. Komen

The emerging brand continues philanthropic efforts by offering handcrafted 'Pink Velvet Shake' for Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Bryan/College Station, TX (October 1, 2018). Grub Burger Bar has teamed up with the nonprofit Susan G. Komen Foundation for Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Throughout the month of October, Grub will offer their limited time Pink Velvet Shake, from which $1 of every sale will be donated to the Susan G. Komen Foundation's Dine Out for the Cure initiative.

According to the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences, one in eight women are affected by breast cancer every year in the United States. As such, Grub is taking their initiative nationwide in support of the SGK cause, which provides grants and funding toward breast cancer research. Give backs and community philanthropy are an integral element of the Grub Burger Bar brand fabric. "We're a part of the neighborhood and that means we're here to help", says founder, Jimmy Loup. "We always enjoy supporting local organizations through initiatives like our buns benefiting for community causes, auction donation items, and our Grub Gives Back Program." Those located within proximity to a Grub Burger Bar are encouraged to reach out with fundraising inquiries of their own.
